Unit 4 Solutions and Solubility Test Name - Teacher Version / Answer Key (verA)

Subject: chemistry
Unit: Unit 4 Solutions and Solubility Test Name

Answer Key

1. [solutions_and_concentration | multiple_choice | 1 mark] C
2. [solutions_and_concentration | multiple_choice | 1 mark] D
3. [solutions_and_concentration | multiple_choice | 1 mark] C
4. [solutions_and_concentration | multiple_choice | 1 mark] D
5. [solutions_and_concentration | multiple_choice | 1 mark] C
6. [solutions_and_concentration | multiple_choice | 1 mark] D
7. [solutions_and_concentration | multiple_choice | 1 mark] C
8. [solutions_and_concentration | multiple_choice | 1 mark] D
9. [solutions_and_concentration | multiple_choice | 1 mark] C
10. [solutions_and_concentration | multiple_choice | 1 mark] D
11. [solutions_and_concentration | multiple_choice | 1 mark] D
12. [solutions_and_concentration | multiple_choice | 1 mark] C

Multiple Choice

Section Plan: 12 questions | 20 marks

1. Which choice best reflects the kind of reasoning required in this section? Select the most accurate option. (1 mark)
    A. Guesswork only
    B. Random selection
    C. Careful use of evidence and method

D. Memorization without understanding

2. Which statement is most accurate about the topic being assessed in this section? (1 mark)

A. It cannot be evaluated using evidence

B. It has no relationship to the unit goals

C. It depends on a single isolated fact only

D. It combines concept knowledge with careful interpretation

3. Which choice best reflects the kind of reasoning required in this section? Choose the best answer. (1 mark)

A. Guesswork only

B. Random selection

C. Careful use of evidence and method

D. Memorization without understanding

4. Which statement is most accurate about the topic being assessed in this section? Select the most accurate option. (1 mark)
